

MERCK ANIMAL HEALTH COMPREHENSIVE PINKEYE PROTECTION

PINKEYE VACCINES

Piliguard® Pinkeye +7 | Piliguard-1 Pinkeye
Trivalent | 20/20 Vision® 7 | Moraxella bovoculi Bacterin

For the veterinarian and producer looking to stop pinkeye before it starts, Piliguard, 20/20 Vision 7 and Moraxella bovoculi bacterin vaccines help boost immunity against the bacteria that cause pinkeye infections. They are available in a variety of formulations for the option that best fits your needs.

PRODUCT	Presentations	Dose	Booster Dose	Route of Administration	Clostridium chauvoei ¹	C. septicemic ²	C. novyi Type B ³	C. sordelli ⁴	C. perfringens Type C ⁵	C. perfringens Type D ⁶	Moraxella bovis ⁵	Moraxella bovoculi
Piliguard Pinkeye +7	10 dose 50 dose	5 mL	5 mL, 3-4 weeks later	SQ ⁶	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
Piliguard-1 Pinkeye Trivalent	10 dose 50 dose	2 mL		SQ								X
20/20 Vision 7	10 dose 50 dose	2 mL	2 mL, 3-4 weeks later	SQ	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
Moraxella bovoculi Bacterin	10 dose 50 dose	2 mL	2 mL, 21 days later	SQ								X

¹Blackleg

²Malignant edema

³Black disease

⁴Enterotoxemia

⁵Pinkeye, or infectious bovine keratoconjunctivitis

⁶Subcutaneous injection

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Multiple products available to fit your operation
- Convenient 7-way clostridial combination products eliminate the need for a second injection
- The Subunit Technology Advantage: Piliguard offers a more specific immune response with lower-reactivity as compared to whole-cell antigen vaccines
- M. bovoculi protection against growing cause of pink eye
- Pinkeye vaccines are one critical piece in pinkeye management
 - Three-Step Approach to Pinkeye Control: Pinkeye vaccine, fly control, pasture management